I'm Still Proud — Reverend Gregory, DD
Front Porch Truths · Released September 12, 2026

Reverend Gregory is a Florida Panhandle voice making porch soul for ordinary days — grateful, upright, not a parade.

I'm Still Proud is out September 12 on 30A Records, the door on the album Front Porch Truths. One hung flag. One fading porch. The line is simple: I'm still proud to stand on this ground. I don't need it perfect. I just need it free.

He's not selling a speech. He's selling the feeling after you've traveled, failed, and still love the dirt under you. Same man who writes about amends and a second shot. This one is the thank-you.
